to-day appeared in Judge Mitchell's court as plaintiff in a suit against J. B.
Lippincott & Co., to recover damages for alleged libelous statements concerning herself in the biography of her husband written by Rosettur Johnson and printed in Lippincott's Magazine in fernal MachineNew York, 5.—The Graphic's Washington special says: The approaching session of the Supreme Court of the United States which begins next Monday was the means to-day of unearthing an incident in the history of Associate Justice Stephen S. Field which has probably not yet been published. Passing down the avenue your correspondent was called by a dealer in firearms, sporting traps and other paraphernalia and asked if he had seen the infernal machine that had been sent to Judge Field. He was taken into the rear of the store and a case of daguerro types was discovered lying upon the counter.

"Examine this," said the dealer "and tell me what you think of it." Close inspection showed that concealed in this case were ten metallic cartridges with the sides filled exposing the powder and neatly imbedded in wax. An ordinary piece of sand paper was connected with the hump of the case, which, if opened from the front, would cause the ignition of the bundle of matches. The case, however, had been opened from the back, and the infernal instrument had failed to accomplish its design. A clipping from a newspaper posted in the case, detailed an account of the decision by Judge Field regarding the title of certain property in San Francisco, California, and it is supposed that the machine was a contrivance of some disappointed litigant. Further inquiry showed that the package came by mail, but was regarded with suspicion by inmates of Judge Field's and the parcel was placed over night in a pail of water.
Afterwards it was pried open from behind and the deadly nature of its contents divulged. Had any one forced the clasp open, as is the custom in handling small cases of the kind, nothing short of a miracle could have prevented the discharge of the metallic cartridges.Iron in the blood. GOLDEN'S LI-
